

POMPEII & THE ASHES

POMPEII & THE ASHES IS A FOUR-PIECE ROCK BAND FROM THE Philadelphia area. The group consists of Eric Dorr (vocals, guitar), Lane Schneier (keyboards, bass, vocals), Sawyer Bernath (bass, guitar, vocals), and Steve Harpine (drums, percussion). Their sound is often piano-driven and focuses around alternative rock. However, the band varies their stylistic approach to fit the lyrical content of each song, leading to explorations in folk- and pop-rock. Music blog Knox Road's review of their debut album Wait It Out states, "the band jumps around from what many might consider modern 'indie rock' (Part of You) to more Dylanesque folk (Away From Nebraska) to a more dreamy ballad sound (Just Like Space)." The song Just Like Space was the May 2009 featured song on Rock Band Sites, and is the opening track on Wait It Out, released in January 2009 by Moon Lab Records.

This summer, Pompeii & The Ashes will be playing shows in the Philadelphia and New York City areas, and is looking for interested venues. The band typically draws in an audience of 40-50 fans per show, is open to any type of performance slot, and can play up to 1½ hours of material. They also cater their set and material to each show as appropriate, which can consist of their usual full band, upbeat sound, or can showcase a more stripped down singer-songwriter quality.
